7 EASY STEPS TO HELP YOU WRITE A COMPARE & CONTRAST ESSAY

If you are wondering about how to start a compare and contrast essay, you are not even close to the essay introduction. Most students do not realize the importance of the prewriting stage and often regret later.

In this article, we are focusing on something more important than the introduction. You will find all the instructions of the prewriting stage so, you will be all set for writing the introduction as well as the rest of the paper.

Step 1: Brainstorm

Remember all the instructions and requirements that your professor gave you. What subjects you are going to compare and what you already know about them. Brainstorm and write down the ideas before you move forward to the research process. Once you have listed down all the ideas, it will be much easier for you to pick the best one.

Step 2: Research

Research on the selected topic and find out how these subjects are similar and different from each other. Go through the available resources such as books, journals, articles, etc. and note down all the important information. Don't forget to keep track of all the sources because you will have to reference them later in your paper.

Step 3: The Outline

Now it is time to create an outline. Almost all types of essays consist of three important parts; introduction, body paragraphs, and a strong conclusion. In outline, you will decide what to include in each section of the paper.

Once you are done with the prewriting steps, you can proceed to the introduction of your essay and request a perfect compare and contrast essay written by an essay writer free to meet deadlines and improve your academic grades.
